Autism Project

Monday, September 20, 2010
10 am to 12 noon
6 Southside Rd, Danvers MA

What is the obligation of the public school systems to meet the unique needs of children with autism spectrum disorder (ASD)?

This workshop will help parents understand the rights and procedures which ensure children with ASD receive educational opportunities which reflect competency and potential. This workshop will address current trends, legal standards, some discussion on court cases, evaluation rights and procedures, and special education service options for children with ASD. The workshop will emphasize specific education services to meet their unique needs and allow them to reach their potential.
